

You are invited to attend the 2017 International Dysphagia Diet Standardization Initiative (IDDSI) Workshop

Have questions about IDDSI? This is your chance to get answers!

Lead by the always practical, insightful and entertaining Peter Lam, Canadian dietitian, dysphagia expert, and co-chair of the International committee developing the IDDSI framework, this engaging and hands-on workshop will leave you with a better understanding of the IDDSI framework.

We will also gain practical implementation tools and strategies, as we have the pleasure of hearing how IDDSI is being implemented in one of our own New Brunswick Hospitals.
