

2017

Baby-Friendly Initiative (BFI)

National Symposium

Sept 21-22 • Moncton, NB

Registrations now open for the 2017 Baby-Friendly Initiative (BFI) National Symposium

Creating Change

September 21-22, 2017

Moncton, New Brunswick

Delta Beausejour Hotel, 750 Main Street Moncton.

This conference is hosted by Breastfeeding Committee for Canada and is an opportunity for healthcare providers, policymakers, administrators, and those involved with maternal and child health to be updated on the Baby-Friendly Initiative as a quality improvement tool for service delivery and breastfeeding outcomes in Canada. Health care professionals from a wide range of disciplines will engage in knowledge transfer and interprofessional collaboration in order to promote, protect and support breastfeeding. The format will include plenaries, national panel discussions and networking opportunities.

Conference Details

Conference details and Preliminary Program are now available.

View Conference Program

Register now for early-bird rates

Register before/on June 21, 2017 to take advantage of the early-bird rate. Individual day rates and a full-rate are available.

Register Online

Spread the word

Please forward this information on to your colleagues who would benefit from participating. It would also be greatly appreciated if you would post the symposium information on your organization's website.