

Employment Opportunity

Vitalité Health Network is one of the two regional health authorities providing and managing health care services in New Brunswick. The Network is comprised of nearly fifty points of service and nearly 7 100 employees. The Network is looking for a:

FOOD SERVICES MANAGER

Plans, organizes, directs, coordinates and controls the activities of the Acadie-Bathurst Zone (Tracadie-Sheila) Food Service in order to provide food services to patients, employees, volunteers and visitors; establishes local and regional policies and procedures on service operation such as menu planning, food preparation, meal distribution and service, budget, food purchase, equipment and / or supplies, sanitation standards, safety practices, human resources, orientation and continuing education of the service workforce. Ensures the compliance of the Service with the laws, accreditation, standards and policies of the Network. Actively participate in the dietary internship program. Actively participate in regional initiatives that affect the delivery of Food Service and / or the Network's strategic plan.

What we are looking for:

- Graduate from a recognized University of Dietitians of Canada with a Bachelor of Nutrition degree or equivalent;
- Active member (or eligible to be an active member) of the New Brunswick Association of Dietitians (NBAD);
- Five years of relevant management experience;
- Recognized skills in communication and interpersonal relationships;
- Recognized skills in leadership, problem-solving, team work approach and change management;
- Recognized skills in management of human, physical, material and financial resources;

Interested?

To enquire further about this exciting opportunity, please contact the Human Resources Department (emplois.jobs@vitalitenb.ca or 1-833-249-2003) or submit your interest in confidence online: Food Services Manager \(# 6-6938 EXT\).

To learn more about our organization, visit our website: www.vitalitenb.ca.