New Brunswick ASSOCIATION OF DIETITIANS

Paper-based Credential Assessment Process
For internationally educated applicants whose primary language is French only.

STEP 1
Complete the Paper-Based Credential Assessment Online Application Form

An interview and/or other assessment may be required.

The decision will be one of the following:

DECISION RESULTS

Non equivalency which ends the paper-based credentialing process.

Specific additional academic courses are needed to successfully complete before proceeding to step 3.

Proceed to Step 2

Approval to proceed to the mandatory Academic and Practicum Upgrading.

Proceed to Step 3

STEP 2
Complete Additional Academic Courses

STEP 3
Complete the Mandatory Academic and Practicum Upgrading

STEP 4
Mandatory Report of Attaining all Internship/Practicum Competencies of ICDEP

STEP 5
Successful completion of the Mandatory Report of Attaining all Internship/Practicum Competencies of ICDEP will result in *Temporary Membership.

* Temporary Membership allows the candidate to practice dietetics in New Brunswick as a Registered Dietitian (Candidate) while waiting to write the Canadian Dietetic Registration Examination (CDRE).